DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

For Circuit Judge.

HON. CHARLES A. HARDIN,
of Mercer County

Thomas S. Rhea, of Russellville, has announced as a candidate for the democratic nomination for State Treasurer. He is one of the most prominent democrats of western Kentucky, has held numerous positions of honor in his community, and looks like a winner all over. He was sheriff of Logan county for four years and is at the present time chairman of the Democratic Committee of that county. Upon the expiration of his term as Sheriff Mr. Rhea was elected vice president of the bank at Russellville, which position he now holds, and he is regarded as one of the most able financiers in Kentucky.

In democratic circles Mr. Rhea is known as a splendid organizer and his services are always in demand by the party in his section of the state. He is a brother of the Hon. John S. Rhea, former representative in congress from the third district and of A. G. Rhea, Democratic State Executive Committee member from the State-at-large.

At a banquet by the New Jersey State Senate, Gov. Woodrow, who may be the democratic nominee for president, told why he is a democrat.

The Governor said he was a democrat and not a republican, because as he understood it, the republican's first principal was the Hamiltonian attitude that trusteeship in government had better be administered by those who had the largest stake in the community.

"This is instanced," he continued, "in the protective policy, which holds that the country is solidest which has greatest prosperity in a comparatively limited class. But I am not convinced that the stewardship of any one class is broad enough to be safe proposition. By the republican idea as the men of small moneyed class grow wealthier and wealthier, the prosperity of the people at large must follow increasing also. This like standing a pyramid on its apex and we believe in building pyramids from the ground up. My desire, as a democrat, is for the interests of the poorer majority with the welfare of the few a subordinate consideration.

"The fundamental questions that distinguish the two parties are national questions. I have never been a good party man in the sense of being a good hater. I cannot hate a man merely because we differ in opinion. That I love a fight I admit but it is not because personal antagonism is involved, but in spite of that fact. The only man I can't respect is he who differs from me without having a reason for it.

Judge Allie Young, of the Bath county circuit court made an innovation the other day at Owingsville which has caused much comment. A case was being tried and it was found that no jurors of the regular panel were available. The sheriff was instructed to go to the school and select a dozen school boys for a jury. The officer did as instructed and secured boys from 13 to 18 years of age. They were sworn and tried a case for illicit selling of whisky. They found the prisoner guilty returning a prompt verdict.

SENATOR PAYNTER.

(W. P. Walton in Lexington Herald.) A Frankfort correspondent is authority for the statement that Senator Paynter declined an offer of a seat on the Supreme bench, when the president was filling the vacancies, because he did not want a Republican to be appointed to succeed him in the Senate, then in so much need of Democrats. This is highly creditable to the party loyalty of the Senator and deserves to be rewarded.

Senator Paynter has made a good record and such as to entitle him to an endorsement an active canvass for which it is said he will begin at once to make.

The only possible thing that can be urged against Senator Paynter was his support of Lorimer, and that should not be counted against the Senator any more than a decision of a judge should be held against him. Senator Paynter was on the committee that investigated the charges of bribery and corruption against the Illinois Senator, and he says he would not convict a dog on such testimony as was brought before it. Having been long on the state's highest bench Paynter knows the value of testimony and being an honest man he could not find other than he did, believing that there was no incriminating evidence against Senator Lorimer, who may be as guilty as can be, but who can not be convicted except on such testimony as a court would accept.

OR HAVE ANOTHER CLEVER HUME TALENT PLAY MARCH 20th

Crab Orchard, Ky., Mar. 16th. Crab Orchard, which is filled with splendid amateur histrionic talent, will enjoy a three-act farce comedy at the Springs on March 20th, the proceeds of which will go to the Christian church. The play is entitled "All a Mistake" the cast of characters being as follows:

Capt. Obadiah Skinner—A retired Sea Captain, W. T. Gover.
Lieut. George Richmond—His Neighbor, R. H. Brown.
Richard Hamilton a Country Gentleman, Thomas Moore.
Ferdinand Lighthouse—A neighbor, M. M. Perkins.
Nellie Richmond—George's Wife, Miss Kate Middleton.
Nellie Huntington—A friend, Miss Ophelia Lackey.
Cornelia—(Nellie) Skinner, Obadiah's sister, Mrs. W. T. Gover.
Nellie McIntire—A servant, Mrs. R. H. Brown.

Saturday evening Mr. James Speed of Louisville delivered his illustrated Lecture "Schools here and elsewhere" to a large and attentive audience. Wish More could have heard him. He is doing a great work, showing where we should be more enthusiastic in educational lines and equipments of better buildings and etc.

Mar. J. F. Cummins, of Stanford, spent the day Tuesday with her sister Mrs. H. D. Campbell.

Mrs. J. W. Hutcherson and little son were up for a days visit from Stanford visiting Mrs. R. C. Collier.

Rev. Wilkes pastor of Berea Baptist church preached a fine sermon both morning and evening at the Baptist church. He will continue the meeting on through next week and probably on through next week. He is the right man in the right place. There was a confession at the morning service Wednesday morning. If the Christian people will be revived in their own hearts and lives, then we can expect many conversions and additions to our churches.

Mrs. Hays Foster of Stanford spent the day Wednesday with Misses Pearl and Clara Collier.

Dr. J. W. Edmiston has bought a nice house, and lot from Mrs. Jane Buchanan.

WARNING TO RAILROAD MEN

Look out for severe and even dangerous kidney and bladder trouble resulting from years of railroad work. Geo. E. Bell 628 Third St., Fort Wayne, Ind., was many years a conductor on the Nickel Plate. He says: "Twenty years of railroad work left my kidneys in a terrible condition. There was a continual pain across my back and hips and my kidneys gave me such distress and the action of my bladder was frequent and most painful. I got a supply of Foley's Kidney Pills and the first bottle made a wonderful improvement and four bottles cured me completely. Since being cured I have recommended Foley's Kidney Pills to many of my railroad friends. Shugars and Tanner."

DIGNITY DARE 1982

Nominated in the Chronicle's Saddle Horse Futurity Stake 1911. 1912

Combined stallion, Dark Mahogany Bay, 15-3 3/4; weight 1,200 pounds, is absolutely sound in every way. Kind disposition and colts easily handled. He has stepped eighth in 18-1-2 hitched to a sulky; is five gaited; a great show horse wearing the blue tie ever since a yearling; at three years old wore 13 blues and 1 red out of 14 shows; as a harness horse and as a model is in a class to himself. He was never defeated except by two of his own colts, and has won in rings of 23 head. His colts are always inside the money, and when developed make great saddlers and high priced three and five gaited show horses. Sixty five of his get at an average age of 2-1-2 years sold at an average price of $611. He has never been defeated in a produce ring when shown with 4 to 18 of his get.

Think of such saddlers as he has sired; namely, Nettleton, Winsom, Prospect, the Jim Anderson mare, Hey Day, the Price Herring Mare, Tolly, Dare, London Dare, Dare All, White Foot, Prince Imperial and a host of others that have been sold from $1,000 to $3,500. Look at his record as a sire of saddlers and see what they can do.

DIGNITY DARE, got by Chester Dare, No. 10, &c. 1st dam by Welchmont 6267 A. T. H. R., he by Rydyk's Hamiltonian No. 10 A. T. H. R. will serve mares this season of 1911 at my stable in Hustonville at the low price of $25 to insure a Living Colt. Money due when colt comes of mare traded or removed, or bred to any other stock. A lien retained on all colts until paid for. Grass furnished at reasonable price for mares from a distance and must be settled for before removed. Breeding hours from 8 to 10 in the morning and 4 to 6 in the evening. Mares will receive my personal attention, but will not be responsible for accidents or escape. Will also at the same time and place stand my great breeding Mule Jack PEYTON.

so well known in the West End of Lincoln county, at $10 for mares and $20 for jennets, due when colt is foaled or mare traded, removed of part with, or mare bred to any other stock. Peyton by Huff Dudderar's Jack, he by Hubbs Brignolia and out of Jim Porter Jennet.

Peyton is fine with very large bone and foot, good neck and ear, good quarter, well mounted, 15 hands 1 inch high and admired by all who see him, and is said to be the best mule jack in Lincoln county.

All are invited to come and see him. Please in residence.

B. S. CARPENTER, Hustonville, Ky.

A DREADFUL SIGHT

to H. J. Baraum, of Freeville, N. Y., was the fever-sore that plagued his life for years in spite of many remedies he tried. At last he used Bucklen's Arnica Salve and wrote: "It has entirely healed with scarcely a scar left." Heals Burns, Boils, Eczema, Cuts, Bruises, Swellings, Corns, and Piles like magic. Only 25 cents at Penny's Drug Store.

Scott's Emulsion

is the original—has been the standard for thirty-five years.

There are thousands of so-called "just as good" Emulsions, but they are not—they are simply imitations which are never as good as the original. They are like thin milk—SCOTT'S is thick like a heavy cream.

If you want it thin, do it yourself—with water—but don't buy it thin.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription

Is the best of all medicines for the cure of diseases, disorders and weaknesses peculiar to women. It is the only preparation of its kind devised by a regularly graduated physician—an experienced and skilled specialist in the diseases of women.

It is a safe medicine in any condition of the system. THE ONE REMEDY which contains no alcohol and no injurious habit-forming drugs and which creates no craving for such stimulants.

THE ONE REMEDY so good that its makers are not afraid to print its every ingredient on each outside bottle-wrapper and attest to the truthfulness of the same under oath.

It is sold by medicine dealers everywhere, and any dealer who hasn't it can get it. Don't take a substitute of unknown composition for this medicine of known composition. No counterfeit is as good as the genuine and the druggist who says something else is "just as good as Dr. Pierce's" is either mistaken or is trying to deceive you for his own selfish benefit. Such a man is not to be trusted. He is trifling with your most priceless possession—your health—may be your life itself. See that you get what you ask for.
